

Discovery Call Prep Worksheet

Forge RPA LLC · Confidential · Version 2026-04-29

Use this worksheet before your discovery call (about 15 minutes). It helps us stay focused on outcomes—not methodology. Bring a saved copy or notes; nothing here replaces a structured engagement.

Your details

Field	Your notes
Organization
Your name & role
Best email / phone
Preferred systems (ERP, FP&A stack, ticketing)

1. Pick three candidate processes

List processes where manual work, rework, or delays show up weekly or monthly (not one-offs).

Process name (plain language) Owner team Rough frequency

1
2
3

2. Volume & time (ballpark is fine)

For each candidate above, estimate:

Process #	Typical volume per month (e.g., invoices, JE lines, tickets)	Minutes or hours per unit today	Who does the work (role/title)?
1
2
3

3. Current pain (pick top two per process)

Check what applies; add a short note.

Pain signal	Process 1	Process 2	Process 3
Rework / exceptions eat capacity	☐	☐	☐
Slow turnaround vs SLA	☐	☐	☐
Audit / control gaps	☐	☐	☐
Key-person dependency	☐	☐	☐
Data trapped in spreadsheets/email	☐	☐	☐
Other: _____

4. Systems touched

For your #1 process, list systems in order (source → handoffs → destination):

Step	System or channel	Data moved
1
2
3
4

5. “Done” definition

What does correct completion look like for process #1?

- Deliverable(s):
 - Approver(s):
 - Evidence you keep today (report, file, ticket):

6. Constraints & timing

Question	Notes
Hard deadlines (close, audit, go-live)?
Change freezes or blackout windows?
Must-stay systems / vendors?
Compliance notes (SOX, HIPAA-adjacent finance only, etc.)?

7. Success for you (12 months)

In one or two sentences: what would “this was worth it” look like for your team?

8. Questions for us

List anything you want answered on the call (scope, timeline shape, how engagements work, etc.):
